ABOUT RUBEN MOLINA'S ARTWORKS

About my last works, two great pictorial traditions converge:
The sensuality of Dutch school drawing, Monet's impressionism and the radical freedom of Jackson Pollock's dripping painting.
It uses simple topics such as:
Horses, faces, people, flowers , among others topics.
Also, I have been searching about Junk –art or recycling-art in the sculptures ; it is a great opportunity to find out several shapes to build languages at the space.
